

Our Professional Exterior Cleaning Service Exceeds Expectations!

For over 8 years, My Guy Services has provided superior exterior cleaning services to homes and businesses throughout Indianapolis. During that time, we have fine-tuned our services to better meet the exact needs of our clients. We listen to you and put together custom packages tailored to your needs. Little things like these add up to big increases in customer satisfaction. In fact, your satisfaction with our work is guaranteed.

How can we guarantee your satisfaction? Take a look:

- We thoroughly train and screen our employees.
- Our employees are professional and uniformed.
- We clearly mark our service vehicles.
- Our company is fully insured.

In addition, we use environmentally friendly cleaning products that are also safe for your home! However, if you are not satisfied with our cleaning services, call us within 24 hours and we will provide a cleaning service to remedy the situation, free of charge.

You'll Love Our Service or We'll PAY YOU!

It's pretty simple really. If you aren't happy with your service for any reason, just let us know. We'll refund your original price, plus 10%.

Why?

One reason: You deserve the best. If you aren't happy, then we've failed to deliver what we promised. We put a lot of pressure on ourselves as a team to deliver the best service in the industry.

We are willing to not only put your money but OURS where our mouth is. My Guy Services is the only cleaning company in Indianapolis that stands behind its work to this level.

We only ask a couple of things from you:

1. Notify us promptly, and in detail, about your concerns.
2. Give us an opportunity to make it right with you.

That's it. No gimmicks, no fine print, no games. It is our hope that every customer we serve becomes a customer for life. We want the same for you.
